

THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 11.

THE VALUE OF POSITIVE OPINION.—It was Sidney Smith (who was a keen observer of human affairs), we believe, who said that a great deal of talent is lost to the world from a want of courage. A man who has the courage of his convictions, and is not afraid to avow them, is always a useful man so long as he stands inside the lines of sound morality and of legitimate human rights. Indeed, when he goes somewhat outside those lines, he may still be useful by provoking thought and discussion that will drive him inside if he is an honest man, and that will at any rate prevent others from standing in a false position. The truth often suffers from a false position, and needs to be stirred up; it suffers less by discussion than from being left alone. Rabbidg it makes it brighter, just as it does with gold and silver and precious stones. Positive opinions beget opposition, of course; but the world and the church need them all the same. Those who are afraid to express them in behalf of truth, can take the awful responsibility of silence; but truth will march forward without them. But where will they be when they see it marching on?—The Evangelist.

Facts Worth Knowing

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with aches, snuffs, powders or syringes, because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be discontinued at once. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It is guaranteed to cure teething, and the child is comfortable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, griping in the bowels and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.
